PLANS OF FAIR BUILDINGS VIEWED BY ARCHITECTS.

Artists of the Opinion That the Buildings Will Far Surpass in Beauty Those of Any Other Exposition—Commission Pleased With the Exhibits.

POLICE FORCE WILL BE ORGANIZED BY AN ARMY OFFICER.

The Manufactures and Liberal Arts building, which has been designed by Carrers & Hastings of New York is crowned to a lengthened arch or arrade, terminated as each end by a hemispherical construction. The designs for the Art building, with a main structure and two paylilons commerced by collorades filled two tiers on the side of the exhibit room. The design is by Case offilter to New York. Theodore Link of St. Louis, who is the designer of one of the disholors of the Education building, submitted a suggestion in addition to his assigned work. It was intraded to be used as an isolated structure and followed the heavy and severe lines of an Egyptian temple. In some of these drawings the sculptural effects were merely infinated by musces of shading. In others they were carried our with some attempt at elaborteness. Several of the drawings were incided the building ship of the colloration building.
